
TABLE OF CONTENTS

I.	Political and administrative changes on the occupied territory of Poland between 1939 and 1945	7
II.	Population movements on the Polish lands in the years 1939-1948	17
1.	Movements of population caused by the September Defensive Campaign of 1939	17
2.	Resettlements of population from the Polish lands incorporated into the Third German Reich	24
3.	Deportations of population from the Polish lands incorporated to the Soviet Union	28
4.	Inflow of the German population into the occupied Polish areas	34
5.	Transportation of Polish citizens “to work” to the Reich and to the Nazi concentration camps	39
6.	The movements and the holocaust of the Jewish population	44
7.	Resettlements of population within the General-Governorship	51
8.	Evacuation and flight of the German population to the Potsdam Germany	57
9.	Repatriation of the Polish population from the areas to the East of the Curzon line	61
10.	Return to Poland of the population deported by the nazi occupants and re-emigration from the West	65
11.	Post-war movements of the Ukrainian and Belarusian population	69
12.	Planned resettlement of the German population to the Potsdam Germany	72
13.	Settling of the Regained Lands by the population of Polish nationality	79
III.	The influence of the population movements on the development of the population number of the post-war Poland and the transformation of its ethnic structure	85
	Bibliography	97
	List of Tables	101
	List of Figures	103